Quinebarge does not have a daily uniform, but Quinebarge – branded items may be purchased in person at our Camp Store during check-in.

What Stays Home

Quinebarge is a place to disconnect and build community and for the safety and benefit of our camp community, all drugs, cigarettes and e-cigarettes, alcohol, weapons or toy weapons (including knives), skateboards, rollerblades, money (except up to $10/week for trips), food, drinks, candy (including gum), phones, cellular technology, two-way radios, videogames, CD or video players, laptops/tablets, and MP3s/iPods or other listening devices with wifi, cellular or video screens are not allowed. Any such items will be confiscated and kept in the office, thrown out, eaten or sent home. Campers bringing any of these items may be sent home. Parents are responsible for ensuring no banned items come to camp. Due to space restrictions, please do not bring trunks.
